

Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law

Financial Aid Policy for JD/LLM International Studies Students

Payments due to Villanova Law

Students enrolled in the JD/LLM program will pay Villanova's tuition but will not pay any fees (e.g., SBA fee) normally due to Villanova during their year abroad.

Federal Loans

For the year abroad, students are eligible to receive federal loans as financial aid.

Scholarships

Please note that if you are the recipient of certain scholarships, you may not be able to use some or all of your scholarship toward the third year of law study because the funds from these scholarships cannot be applied toward payments to schools other than Villanova. However, they can usually be applied toward the difference, if any, between the tuition at Villanova Law and your tuition abroad.

I understand that as a Student of the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law, I am responsible for the Full Amount of tuition for the Widger School of Law which is:

Villanova will pay your host school's tuition of:

If you receive a scholarship, depending on the amount; you may be able to use some of the Scholarship towards the difference of Villanova's tuition and the host School's tuition amount of Scholarship, if any.

Students who expect to need financial aid during the year abroad should contact the Financial Aid Office as soon as possible to discuss what kinds of funding may be available. It is never too early to plan ahead if you would like to be able to participate in this unique experience.
